

Psalm 121

Where should I look for help in my need?

To majestic mountain peaks that probe our skies

or to giants of industry that clog our land?

To satellites that circle our world

or to computers that store our knowledge?

The answer to my problems
and the fulfilment of my needs
must come from God Himself,
from Him who created skies and mountains
and men and women to dwell in their midst.
He is a great God who knows our every desire,
whose watchful eye is upon us night and day.
We can make no move without His knowledge.
His concern for His children is constant,
His love for them eternal.

And thus, the Lord will keep you,
shielding you from the forces of evil
as a shade tree shields you
from the rays of the blazing sun.

He does care for you,
and He will fight with you
against the enemies of your soul.

Whether you are coming or going,
He knows the course you take,
and He will go before you.
